I resolved the problem with the patch applied. Since the EXPAT-libraries are already linked later on, there is no need to add them to that xmp library.
With this patch, and the reverted patch of Issue 844, I was able to compile the exiv2lib/exiv2 subprojects. Anyways the tests did not build, but that's another issue. Just verify that my patch doesn't break them on other platforms ;)

Fix. Issue: #852. libxmp should not be linked with expat. Thanks Daniel for providing the patch.
